

Video/Social Media Internship

PSMHoops is looking for a Video/Social Media Intern for Summer 2011 (June 21st – August 17th) at the 2011 DC Pro-AM Summer League. The Summer League will take place in Takoma Park, MD at Washington Adventist University with games being played Tuesday and Wednesday Nights.

About PSMHoops

PSMHoops is a company in the basketball industry that specializes in scouting players and conducting exposure camps for aspiring professional players. We have close relationships with the player personnel departments of numerous professional basketball teams. We provide those teams with reports on players about whom they are interested. We also provide aspiring professional players opportunities to be evaluated by professional teams in 'exposure camp' settings.

About the 2011 DC Pro-AM Summer League

A professionally run summer league for elite professional and college players organized by PSMHoops, a company with significant experience running basketball tournaments and US and overseas exposure camps.

Internship Responsibilities:

- Film all games at the Summer League (two games each Tuesday and Wednesday).
- Post game film from Summer League on PSMHoops' YouTube Channel.
- Post game film from past Exposure Camps onto PSMHoops' YouTube Channel.
- Maintain PSMHoops' YouTube Channel.
- Opportunity for additional responsibilities and roles.

Required Experience

- Experience filming basketball games preferred but not required.
- Experience operating video equipment.
- Ability to upload films to YouTube.
- Must be able to cut game film into clips that can be uploaded to YouTube.

If you would like to apply or have any questions about the position please contact Jesse Lambert at PSMHoopsJesse@gmail.com

For more information of the 2011 DC Pro-AM Summer League or PSMHoops please visit <http://psmhoops.com>